“We are pleased with our solid financial results for the second quarter and our strong student enrollment for the summer term,” said Robert S. Silberman, Chairman and CEO of Strayer Education, Inc. “We look forward to the opening of our four new campuses and our expansion in the states of Florida and Ohio for the 2009 fall term.”

Balance Sheet and Cash Flow

At June 30, 2009, the Company had cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities of $90.4 million and no debt. The Company generated $71.9 million from operating activities in the first six months of 2009 compared to $43.5 million during the same period in 2008. Capital expenditures were $13.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2009 compared to $10.0 million for the same period in 2008.

During the three months ended June 30, 2009, the Company used $5.1 million to repurchase 27,800 shares of stock at an average price of $181.95 as part of a previously announced stock repurchase authorization. The Company’s remaining authorization for stock repurchases was $5.0 million at June 30, 2009, having invested approximately $65.1 million during the six months ended June 30, 2009 for this purpose. During the six months ended June 30, 2009, the Company paid regular, quarterly dividends of $14.1 million ($0.50 per share for each quarterly dividend).

For the second quarter 2009, bad debt expense as a percentage of revenues was 4.2% compared to 2.8% for the same period in 2008. Days sales outstanding, adjusted to exclude tuition receivable related to future quarters, was 15 days at the end of the second quarter of 2009, compared to 12 days at the end of the second quarter of 2008.

Student Enrollment

Enrollment at Strayer University for the 2009 summer term increased 24% to 42,516 students compared to 34,176 students for the same term in 2008. Across the Strayer University campus and online system, continuing student enrollments increased 23%, while new student enrollments increased 28%. Global online students increased 43%. New Campus Openings

The Company announced today that Strayer University will open four new campuses in preparation for the fall academic term. Two campuses will be located in the state of Ohio serving the Cleveland and Akron markets. The third campus will be located in Florence, Kentucky, which will serve residents in the Cincinnati, Ohio market. The fourth new campus will be in Miami, Florida. These four new campuses, together with the seven campuses opened earlier this year, complete the Company's planned 11 campus openings in 2009. In October, the Company intends to announce the number of new campuses Strayer University plans to open in 2010.

Shares and Options Outstanding

At June 30, 2009, the Company had 13,992,907 common shares issued and outstanding, and 147,084 stock options outstanding with a weighted average exercise price of $105.49 and a remaining weighted average contractual life of 2.5 years.

Common Stock Cash Dividend

The Company announced today that its Board of Directors has declared its regular, quarterly cash dividend of $0.50 per share. This dividend will be paid on September 10, 2009 to shareholders of record as of August 27, 2009.

Business Outlook

Based on the strong enrollment growth announced for the 2009 summer term, offset partly by the costs of investments in new campuses, the Company estimates third quarter 2009 diluted EPS will be in the range of $1.14 to $1.16.

This press release contains statements that are forward looking and are made pursuant to the "safe-harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 ("Reform Act"). The statements are based on the Company's current expectations and are subject to a number of uncertainties and risks. In connection with the safe-harbor provisions of the Reform Act, the Company has identified important factors that could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially. The uncertainties and risks include the pace of growth of student enrollment, our continued compliance with Title IV of the Higher Education Act, and the regulations thereunder, as well as regional accreditation standards and state regulatory requirements, competitive factors, risks associated with the opening of new campuses, risks associated with the offering of new educational programs and adapting to other changes, risks associated with the acquisition of existing educational institutions, risks relating to the timing of regulatory approvals, our ability to implement our growth strategy, risks associated with the ability of our students to finance their education in a timely manner, and general economic and market conditions. Further information about these and other relevant risks and uncertainties may be found in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K and its other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, all of which are incorporated herein by reference and which are available from the Commission. We undertake no obligation to update or revise forward looking statements.
